

All Wrapped up

Curriculum project homework ideas – be as creative as you like. Have fun! Once you have completed your work, take a photo and upload it to Class Dojo.

Research the Egyptian alphabet and then write your name using the symbols. you can present this any way that you choose. 	Write a poem about something from Ancient Egypt. It could be a pyramid, a pharaoh or even the River Nile. You could choose to write an acrostic poem, a haiku or a shape poem. 	Find out some facts about Egypt now. You could find out about the weather, what there is to do there, what animals live there or what the flag and currency are. Can you present your information in an interesting way?
Make a model of something that you might find in a tomb. It could be based on things found in the pyramids or on something that you would like to put in if you were an Egyptian pharaoh. You can make this out of anything you like. 	Go on a sound hunt around your house. Make a list or draw all of the things that you can hear. Maybe repeat it at a different time of day and see if the sounds are different! 	Design a piece of jewellery that you could wear to a specific event. Think about the materials you would use and the colours that you could choose.

Weekly homework

To read three (3) times per week with an adult.

To practise spellings as often as possible on Spelling Shed.

To practise times tables on TTRockstars and Times Table superheroes sheet